STATE LANDS.

Senator Williamson has introduced a bill to amend the Act providing for the selection and sale of State lands, the text of which is printed in the JOURNAL. It provides for a reduction of the rate of interest on deferred payments of lands from six to three per cent. per annum.

The JOURNAL in its issue of January 25th referred to the subject embraced in the bill and stated several facts in connection therewith, showing why the proposed reduction in the rate of interest should be made. Persons who contracted for such lands, when the land craze was at its height a few years ago, paid twenty-five cents an acre cash and have since paid six per cent. per annum interest on the balance of the purchase price. Tens of thousands of acres of those lands are dear at what has been paid for them, as they are valueless except for grazing purposes, and not worth much for that. Those who contracted for them in too many instances have been financially embarrassed by the losses of live stock caused by the drouth of 1889 and the unprecedented severity of the winter of 1889-90, and contemplate abandoning the least valuable of them, in which event the school fund will lose the interest, and the counties in which they are situated the amount for which they are taxed, as they cannot be disposed of at the present price for many years to come.

Aside from that consideration, however, the proposed reduction is simply an act of justice to those who contracted for the lands. The money which they paid—one fifth of the full price—and the interest which they pay on the balance is invested in United States bonds or kept in the treasury. If invested in Government bonds the interest does not exceed three per cent. per annum, as the bonds command a premium of about twenty-five per cent. and draw only four per cent. interest.

The existing law compels the payment of twenty-five cents per acre for lands and six per cent. interest on the balance of one dollar per acre, for which the lands are held as security. This money is invested in bonds drawing three or less per cent. interest. The bill under consideration proposes to reduce the interest on what is due on contract lands to about what the school fund now derives from the bonds in which school moneys are invested. Surely there is nothing unjust or unreasonable in that, therefore the bill ought to pass.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

The Elko Independent says it will not support a man for the Presidency who is known to be opposed to the free coinage of silver. The policy of advocating principle and supporting a candidate who is avowedly antagonistic to that principle is inconsistent to be considered for a moment by anyone who claims to be honest in his convictions.

That is the spirit evinced by the Democratic press of the State and by the leading Democrats in Congress who have been contending for free coinage. Cleveland is not in sympathy with his party on the silver question, and unless Democrats stably themselves they cannot support him for President. Between him and a Republican, however, they would have to do so, as neither the Republican House of Representatives nor the Republican Administration favor free coinage, and no legislation beneficial to the silver interest can be expected from that party. The next House of Representatives will be overwhelmingly Democratic and if it fails to pass a free coinage bill, Nevada Democrats must join the Farmers' Alliance, unless they act as inconsistently as the Republicans by professing to favor free coinage, while voting to keep in power a party that is opposed to it.

The Gazette says: "The Democratic press is trying hard to make political capital out of the acts of the Nevada Legislature. They will have to bark up another tree in order to get a grain of comfort." In the language of Captain Cutts, when overcome by the wisdom of Jack Bunsby: "That is an opinion as is an opinion."

Our neighbor, Bothsides, either wilfully or unintentionally misrepresents the publishers of the JOURNAL when it intimates that one of them advocated the passage of a bill to create a State Board of Equalization similar to that which it asks the railroad company to prevent the Legislature from passing.

There is blood on the moon. Mackay, the bonanza king, and his former broker Bonynge, who fought to a finish in San Francisco last month, are preparing to renew the battle in New York.

The Enterprise fails to name, as requested to do by the JOURNAL, a single Act of benefit to the people that the Legislature has passed up to date in return for the $35,000 it has cost the State.

The grippe has attacked the soldiers at Fort Logan, Colorado. It is worse than an Indian war as eighty men are in the hospital and four deaths are reported within a week.

The Burial of King Kalakaua.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 27.—The U. S. flagship Charleston, which arrived this afternoon from Honolulu after a passage of ten days, brings word that the Hawaiian Ministry has refused to resign, and that Queen Liliuokalani has appealed to the Supreme Court of Hawaii to oust them.

Affairs otherwise are progressing quietly. The funeral of King Kalakaua took place on the 16th inst. The funeral ceremonies began in the Throne room of the Palace, and the services were according to the ritual of the Episcopal Church. The Bishop of Honolulu and all the clergy of the city participated. The Royal family, Judges of the Supreme Court, Privy Councillors, Nobles and other officers of the government and personal friends of the dead King were the only ones present at the services, but the Palace was surrounded by natives. The remains were taken from the Palace to the Church, where second services were held, and the city officials, delegations from other islands, officers and men from vessels in the harbor and prominent residents were admitted. The funeral pageant was the largest ever seen on the islands. The catafalque was surmounted by a pyramidal dome resting on pillars covered with black cloth entwined with ribbons of silk. At the top of each pillar waved a heavy black plume with white tips. The casket was an elaborate piece of native workmanship. The band from the Charleston headed the procession, and was followed by officers and a detachment of marines from the Charleston and Mohican, H. B. M. S. Nymph, Masons, natives and others. Colonel Iauke acted as Marshal. At the Royal Mausoleum ceremonies were conducted by the Bishop of Honolulu and Master Mason Phillips, the native choir chanting at intervals. During the progress of the funeral cortège minute guns were fired from men-of-war in the harbor, and bells tolled in the city.

Yuma Destroyed by a Flood.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 27.—Dispatches received by the railway officials from Yuma to-day, say that every building in the town except the Southern Pacific Hotel and the penitentiary are destroyed by the flood. Last night the Gila and Colorado rivers rose 33 feet above low water mark. The passenger and freight depots are both flooded and the water rose to a level with the bridge across the Colorado river. In order to prevent the bridge being carried away by the freight depot being set afoul, the building was blown up by dynamite. This morning the river dropped 17 inches in one hour and Yuma residents are feeling less anxious.

The country east for twenty miles is under water and the S. P. tracks are washed out for fully that distance. Trains are running between El Paso and Tucson, but westbound passengers are held at Tucson.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 27.—The repairs to all damaged tracks and trestles between Mojave and Los Angeles are reported as accomplished to-day. The last work to be done was at Tehuenga below Fernando tunnel where about two hundred foot of trestling had been washed away.

The first train to leave Los Angeles westbound since Saturday started at 1:35 this afternoon, and is expected to arrive tomorrow noon. All southbound trains detained at Mojave and Bakersfield since Sunday were started moving this morning.

Beyond Los Angeles and as far as Colton all breaks were reported as mended by noon to-day.

Senate Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, February 27.—Consideration of the Legislative Appropriation bill was resumed, the first question being on the amendment as to the clerical force of the Civil Service Commission.

The President to-day transmitted to the Senate copies of papers relating to the reciprocity arrangement between the United States and Brazil; also the President's proclamation and tables showing the exportation of certain products from this country to Brazil, all of which have heretofore been made public.

The Senate has passed the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill, and has agreed to take up the Pure Food bill. This makes it unfinished business. It will have to give way, however, to appropriation bills.

The Senate has just passed the House Immigration bill.

After a number of amendments were agreed to the Legislative Appropriation bill passed.

A number of House bills were taken up and passed.

The Indian Appropriation bill was considered and Dawes made a speech against the education of Indians under the present system.

Conferees on the House and Senate bills to establish a private land court reached an agreement. The House conferees agreeing to accept, the bill was passed by the Senate with several modifications.

In the Indian Appropriation bill the Senate Committee struck out the provisions of the House bill authorizing Indians to lease allotments for mining purposes.

House Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, February 27.—In the House to-day the Senate bill was passed amending the law providing for the selection of school lands. The House then went into Committee of the Whole, resuming consideration of the Shipping bill.

The House substitute for the Senate bill was read by paragraphs for amendments. Herbert offered an amendment withdrawing subsidy from sailing vessels and confining it to steamships.

A large number of amendments were offered to the bill most of which were defeated. At 5 o'clock the Committee rose and reported the bill to the House.

Farguabar moved to substitute the House bill, which was agreed to—144 to 47. The vote then recurred on ordering third reading, the roll was called amidst an intense excitement and the motion was defeated—yeas, 142; nays, 148. The announcement was greeted with wild applause by the Democrats.

Dingley moved to reconsider which was agreed to and the question ordering the third reading again recurred. This time it was carried—yeas, 147; nays, 145. The House then voted to recommit the bill, with instructions to the Committee to report immediately the Postal Subsidy bill and the Committee at once did so. The Senate bill as amended was passed—yeas, 140; nays, 120.

Farguabar moved that the conference be ordered and pending action the House at midnight adjourned.

Heavy Rain in California.

Special to the Journal.

WOODLAND, February 27.—It has been raining continuously for 48 hours. All the streams in this country run full, and thousands of acres of swamp and tule land are under water, and crops will be almost a total loss.

STATE LANDS.

A Bill to Amend the Act Providing for Their Selection and Sale.

WHEREAS, All public lands in this State, as soon as applied for by parties wishing to purchase them from the State, are assessed and taxed at an oppressively high valuation and rate of taxation; and

WHEREAS, The rate of interest, six per centum per annum, charged by the State on deferred payments for such lands, is exorbitantly high, and not in accord with the ruling rates in such cases generally; and

WHEREAS, Under the above facts there is great probability that much of said lands, now under contracts of sale, will be forfeited by applicants and revert again to the State, unless said rate of interest be reduced; therefore,

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 7 of the above-entitled Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section seven. Section eight of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section eight. In addition to the mode and manner of the sale of State lands, the State Land Register is hereby further empowered to sell and dispose of any agricultural or grazing lands, payable as herein-after specified; that is to say, with any person as defined in Section five of this Act wishing to purchase lands under the provisions of this section, and who shall have made proper application therefor, and duly established his or her right to purchase under the provisions of this Act, the State Land Register is hereby authorized and required to enter into contract to sell such lands upon the receipt of the list certifying the approval of such lands to the State, upon the following condition, to-wit: One-fifth of the purchase price to be paid on application; the remainder of the purchase price to be paid within twenty-five years from the date of contract, with interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, interest payable annually; provided, that the applicant, or his or her heirs or assigns, may at any time prior to the maturity of such contract make full payment

The family has a bad reputation, and foul play is suspected.

The decline in silver is beginning to be felt in the vicinity of Battle Mountain. The Central Nevadan says: "Andy Melander has resolved to close his galena mine if the price remains at the present figures. Andy will also be a Farmers' Alliance man if the Democrats in 1892 nominate Cleveland." While Reed and his aids and abettors in Congress and President Harrison in the White House are responsible for the decline in silver, it seems strange that the Central Nevadan and other Republican papers uphold them.

Weather Report for February 27, 1891.

Ogden—Snowing, calm; 34 degrees above zero.

Terrace—Cloudy, snowing, south wind; 38 degrees above zero.

There is an active operation a funeral reform association, every member of which is pledged to fight crape and to use her influence on the undertakers, stationers and upholsterers with whom she comes in contact. Oddly enough the women are very young and correspondingly influential Americans, as a rule, go in for the heaviest mourning, blackest trapings, and the broadest bands. Their crape is not only of the crapiest kind, but overpowering in weight and depth. The livery is black; prayer books, purses, card cases and even watches are bound in jet or enamel, and it is not unusual to find a woman of means living in a boudoir covered with white crash and hung with black drapery.

An upholsterer in Sixth avenue has had three orders from eccentric widows to paint their doors black. As a matter of fact heavy mourning is no longer fashionable. People are getting more and more averse to crape every year. One of the signs of the times is the disappearance of the crape and streamers from the door bells. In wealthy homes a servant is kept at the door to receive callers. Often a sort of cap is tied over the knob without any ribbons at all, and where the views of the late Henry Ward Beecher are entertained a garland of blossoms and foliage is fastened to the bell-pull. —New York World.

An Exhilarating Journey.

The only connection between Rogers City and Cheboygan—two Michigan towns—during the six months exile of the former town when navigation closes, is by a stage line sixty-five miles long, and the grizzled old man who drives saves sixteen miles by a whizzing ride across Black lake, six miles long. The ride is as thoroughly dangerous as exhilarating, and six people nearly lost their lives there the other day. The horses dashed into an airhole near the middle of the lake, and the stage went to the bottom. Fortunately it struck a sandbar, and the passengers rescued themselves and the horses.—Exchange.

A new flashlight fire alarm has recently appeared in Copenhagen. It consists of a small cartridge filled with Bengal light composition and provided with a fuse which carries a small capsule of strong sulphuric acid. When the temperature of the room rises above the melting point of paraffine the sulphuric acid is liberated and ignites the fuse which in turn sets fire to the Bengal light. The device can be supplemented by a piece of fusible metal which in melting will establish an electric current and ring a bell.

After an Office.

Some features of office seeking are objectionable, but The Atlanta Constitution prints a letter from an applicant suggesting at the same time that he seems to be really in need of an office, and it is equally evident that he is not a man whom office is likely to seek. The following is his modest avowal:

"To the editry i am a candydait to the Office of skule Kommissioner an Ask My Frens to Cast a Voat in My Boehlve. I am a 1 Arm Man, Bein cut oph in A saw Mill, and Knead the Offise."

An Electric Cane.

The Paris Gaulois recently stated that an electric cane has been invented which will be found very useful by people who are obliged to be out late at night in the dangerous districts of Paris. By merely touching an assailant it will be possible to give him a shock which will be of great value as a means of self defense.

Copper Coated Telegraph Wires.

After exhaustive experiments the French postoffice has decided to substitute a copper coated steel wire in place of the ordinary iron wire for telegraphic and telephonie service. It is claimed this will greatly reduce the induction.—New York Journal.

The equivalent in English money of $2,500 was once offered by an old lady in London for the return of a favorite cat which had been killed or stolen. People called her "Madame" and paid her respects. It is unfortunate that one of the gentler sex should ever earn this title, yet many do. It is, however, frequently not their fault. Often tumultuous derangements will apparently change a woman's entire nature, and then get her into trouble, too "cranky" but tell others to see Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is an infallible remedy for "female weaknesses."

"Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of poor, bed-ridden suffering women of all sorts of complaints, but irregularities, ulcerations, constitutional indispositions, kindred ailments too numerous to mention. It is the only medicine for women sold by druggists under a positive guarantee that it will, in every case, give satisfaction or the price ($1.00) will be refunded.
